Community Resources Serving Immigrant and Refugee Families

In many communities, local agencies help immigrant and refugee families adapt to life in Canada. This list will help health professionals become familiar with services in their province/territory or region.

http://www.kidsnewtocurrency.ca/beyond/resources

For a list of French services, visit the French side of our site

Ontario

http://www.kidsnewtocurrency.ca/beyond/resources#ontario

Ontario government resources

- Ontario Ministry of Citizenship and Immigration: Information on finding a home or child care, registering children in school, health care and social services, filling out forms and access interpretation services.

Settlement.org provides newcomers to Ontario with information about language programs, housing, health, education, recreation and more. Services such as crisis lines, community health centres and settlement services can be sorted by region.

InMyLanguage.org provides Ontario residents with information in 11 languages. Resources cover a wide range of topics including health, education, legal matters and daily life.

Welcome to Ontario kiosks provide basic information on settlement services including employment, education and other resources available to support newcomers. Currently there are 51 kiosks situated across Ontario.

Chinese Family Services of Ontario is a non-profit, accredited professional counselling, family services and settlement agency with a focus on Chinese Canadians.

NewYouth.ca: Articles and videos aimed at newcomer youth. Links to services and programs, and listings of events for newcomer youth.